

Grade 10 English Language Worksheet 2

Directions: Select the error in one of the underlined parts in each sentence.

1. The people of Punjab will have a chance to vote for the first time in seven years this week; they haven't had many election meetings, campaign posters or political banners to help guided their choice.
2. As medical costs soar, the idea of a complete physical checkup has come under fire as both a waste of time or money.
3. The major function of kidneys is the excretion of metabolic wastes and excess substances through the formation of urine.
4. They requested that the superintendent of the building should be cleaned up the storage room in the basement so that the children had enough space for their indoor activities.
5. Bangkok is so a very densely-populated city that there is no city comparable to it.
6. Industrial buyers are responsible for supplying the goods and services that an organization requiring for its operations.
7. Reptiles were widely distributed all over the world, but are much abundant in warm regions and are virtually absent beyond the tree line in the Arctic.
8. Oil prices continued to fall yesterday as concerns eased that a tropical storm blows through the Caribbean could damage oil facilities in the Gulf of Mexico.
9. A deadly fungus is threatening the survival of one of our best – loved and most healthiness snacks----the banana.
10. Greater financial integration within Asia would help reducing mismatches and transaction costs as a result of using the US dollars as the primary medium for settlement.
11. Located in the popular Chaweng Beach, Amari Palm Reef Resort and Spa Samui offers a deal that includes three-night accommodation in a deluxe family duplex room.
12. The Samsung Bordeaux LCDTV has designed not just to function as a state-of-the art television but to beautifully blend in with modern interior design.
13. Chiang Mai University is the latest campus to adopt a wireless network strategy, with students now able to assess the Internet from a notebook or mobile device more conveniently.